I AM AIA LASVEGAS MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

I am a proud member of the AIA because...Over the years I have made many friends and clients because of AIA. We are a community within itself. AIA is an organization that continues to support each other. The events that they hold are top notch and I always seem to learn something from them each time.

I am the Senior Account Executive at ARC Document Solutions in Las Vegas. I began in 1994 in a profession I knew nothing about but it has been so much fun watching the town we live in change and grow. ARC has been involved in almost every large construction project since 1954. I love being able to drive down the strip or other parts of the valley and point out in my mind who did those buildings. I can say, oh, Bergman Walls did that one or Paul Steelman did that one etc... I remember looking at the very first set of plans for The Orleans back when I first started and tried to imagine what it would look like. In some small way it makes me feel that I have helped contribute to the creation of what we are now. These are memories that will never go away.

What is the most important thing you've learned? I have learned that we should just accept people as they are. We might all be different and have opposite opinions but that what makes the world.

What is your favorite piece of architecture? Why? The Notre Dame Cathedral. I remember just standing in awe that it was built like 700 years ago. Sad right now because of the recent fire but it will be back soon even better I believe.

What person, living or dead, would you most like to talk with? Elon Musk. The man is brilliant and I would love to find out what the next thing is that might be coming out of his brain.

How do you think the profession will evolve in the next 5-10 years? The reprographic industry has changed so drastically over the past few years, and ARC has kept up with those changes. Paper is going away slowly as new technology takes its place. The GC's on the Raiders Stadium are using Smartscreens for the majority of their construction documents right inside the trailers. I can't even imagine what they will invent next.

WE'RE MOVING - AIA LAS VEGAS WILL HAVE A NEW OFFICE LOCATION AND WILL BE MOVING THIS SUMMER.

After 11 years at the Historic Fifth Street School, AIA Las Vegas (and AIA Nevada) will establish new offices in downtown Las Vegas. Currently, we are looking at the back half of the Facilitiq Building (on Main Street). It is a great architectural space for our office. We're excited to continue to be centrally located in the downtown arts district area and to have a beautiful new location for our Chapter. A special thank you to our realtor Chris Crooks of Newmark Knight Frank. Once settled into our new space, we're looking forward to inviting all members to celebrate with us. Watch for updates on our progress.

2020 WMR PETTIGREW LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

The WMR Pettigrew Leadership Scholarship was established by the AIA Western Mountain Region in 2004 as a memorial for Jason Pettigrew, Assoc. AIA, who was the first Regional Associate Director for the Region, and destined for a brilliant career as an architect. Tragically, Jason's life was lost while climbing a mountain in the Colorado Rockies. This award provides a Leadership

Scholarship in memory of Jason specifically for those AIA associate members who demonstrate leadership and a commitment to the profession. The Scholarship allows the recipient to attend the annual AIA Grassroots Leadership Conference and the annual WMR Conference, hosted by one of the six state components in the Region.

To apply for the 2020 Pettigrew Leadership Scholarship follow this link <http://www.aiawmr.org/wmr-pettigrew-leadership-scholarship>, click on the Pettigrew Leadership Program 2020, follow the instructions, complete the application form and submit to Amber Haro, Associate AIA. On April 15, 2019 the entire world watched as the beloved Cathédral Notre-Dame De Paris was devastated by fire likely caused by an electrical short-circuit. The following day, the Aljazeera headline read, Notre Dame fire: "France is crying and the whole world, too". In 2012, my wife and I visited the Notre-Dame Cathedral while on vacation through Europe. As an architect, I felt like I've known the Cathedral for many years, and like many, was deeply saddened by the news.

Within a week of the fire, France announced an International Design Competition to ask the question of "whether the spire should be recreated as it was conceived by Viollet-le-Duc" Prime Minister Edouard Philippe said. "Or whether, as is often the case during the evolution of heritage, we should endow Notre-Dame with a new spire that reflects the techniques and challenges of our era" (As reported in Reuters World News April 17, 2019).

While Sir Norman Foster and many others were busy proposing radical overhauls of the 19th century spire, my post-fire thoughts were more focused on the global significance of the "building" and why it was so famous and loved by everyone, and not just Parisian Catholics. Could the answer simply be that the 859-year-old French Gothic Cathedral was well-designed and well-planned by French Architect Maurice de Sully? Could it be its location? Afterall, "Our Lady of Paris" does reside in a beautiful city along the beautiful and winding Seine River complete with its 37 beautiful bridges. The enduring question is, what makes Architecture magical for everyone? The answer can be found in Paris, France at the Notre-Dame Cathedral. Let me know if you figure it out...

APRIL WAS A BUSY MONTH FOR THE CHAPTER. On 4/1, we kicked off Art, Architecture, & Design month with CANstruction at Three Square, on 4/2 we celebrated with Michael Del Gatto who was recognized as the UNLV College of Fine Arts Alumnus of the Year at the UNLV Hall of Fame Banquet, on 4/22 the 46th Annual AIA Las Vegas Golf Tournament was held at TPC Summerlin, there was not one, but two (2) Klai Juba Wald Lectures (Gina Ford on 4/1 and Victor Regnier on 4/22) and on 4/24 we awarded $3,150 in student cash awards at the 46th Annual High School Design Awards.

In wrapping up Art, Architecture, & Design month, I attended two special events that deserve mention.

The UNLV AIAS Inaugural Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser was held on April 26 held at the offices of BWA Architecture + Interiors. The event was fantastic, and I was even more impressed by Chapter President Destanee Cook's presentation on the accomplishments of their Chapter within the past year. This student group is (hyper) active and working hard to augment their education with Community Service projects like Casa de Luz (supported by board member Cesar Ceballos, AIA), student/professional Mentoring programs, Coffee with an Architect program, Project Tours and much more. Following the event, AIA Las Vegas made a $500 donation to the UNLV AIAS Chapter.

BLUEPRINT FOR BETTER 2019

In 2019, the AIA National Blueprint for Better campaign brings to life the role of architects as thought and action leaders in improving our cities, towns and neighborhoods. One of AIA's main goals this year is to strengthen partnerships with civic leaders and elected officials. We want architects to have a key seat at the table when important civic decisions are made.

To be an architect is to create a Blueprint for Better. Working with our communities we build better structures and spaces to serve our clients and the public. That means better structures and spaces to serve the needs of clients and the public. Using built solutions to address issues like climate change, affordable housing and school safety, architects are at the forefront of solving problems at every level. Creating a Blueprint for Better is more than a profession, it's what architects are called to do.

Campaign goals

- Encourage architects to collaborate with civic and elected leaders
- Demonstrate how architects can help solve the important issues of our time.
- Evolve the perception of architects to true thought and action leaders

This is why AIA Las Vegas has made 2019 the year that we address the critical issues of "Affordable Housing and Homelessness" in our Las Vegas community. Under the overall national theme of Blueprint for Better, we are working with civic leaders and affiliated organizations to address these challenges and improve our community.

You can be a part of this effort also. – Use the hashtag #BlueprintForBetter to join the conversations and promote the good work of architects. Read and share inspiring Blueprint for Better stories – BlueprintForBetter.org and learn more about how to get involved at aia.org/publicawareness

UNLV SOA NEWS

Dr. Steffen Lehmann, AIA RIBA, RAIA, AoU
Director of the School of Architecture
University of Nevada, Las Vegas

WHAT IS HAPPENING AT THE SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE?

The School of Architecture (SoA) at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) is becoming a global hub for design education. The School offers intensive programs in architecture, landscape architecture, and interior architecture & design; and in 2020, is adding a new graduate program in Metropolitan Planning. The School is renowned for its innovative teaching, research, and outreach that is critically informed, academically rigorous, and interdisciplinary.

We have recently reorganized the school's research concentrations with a focus on the urban challenges of the American city, which in turn informs the research-led teaching in the school. Building on the existing expertise, our new 7 theme-based labs are:

- Ageing and Healthcare Design Lab
- Digital Fabrication at-LAS Lab
- Natural Energies Advanced Technologies Lab
- Urban Futures Lab
- Design + Build Lab
- Hospitality Design Lab
- Cluster for City Change

Work across all programs is showing the benefits of academic research, and the programs are the richer for it. In addition, the SoA offers this year a global studio in Mexico-City, and an exciting design + build program, which is involved in the Solar Decathlon 2019/20 design + build competition. Whether at UNLV's main campus or abroad, the SoA's faculty provides students with expertise and encouragement across all levels of education.

We are a young and vibrant School that inspires and challenges our students. To become an architect and be based in the desert climate of Southern Nevada requires resourcefulness, appropriate architectural strategies, and an unwavering respect for the forces and life cycles of nature.

The School of Architecture continues to grow in stature and student numbers, evidenced by the diversity of work showcased here. Our graduates can look forward to a promising, fulfilling and rewarding career, and we wish them well as they move into the world of practice, informed by research and scholarship.

More information can be found here: www.unlv.edu/architecture

I invite you to join our diverse School and be part of a flourishing creative community.

This year, the CANstruction Exhibit and Kick off to Art, Architecture and Design Month was held at Three Square and included not only a party, but a tour of the facility. It was a lot of fun and the location is terrific. If you have never been out to the Three Square Facility, please take the time to go. It's truly wonderful and you will not be disappointed!

Chair of the CANstruction Committee, Travis P. Allen, AIA from Carpenter Sellers Del Gatto Architects, with assistance from John Ritz from SHarchitecture headed up the program this year. Although there were only two entries, it was a great success everyone enjoyed the evening. A total of 6629 cans were used to create the structures which will all be donated to Three Square.

We thank PGAL for sponsoring the CANstruction Exhibit and Kick off to Art, Architecture and Design Month Reception and, as always, we thank Levi Ellyson and 501 Studios for their photographic services.

14 ELECTIONS

2019-2020 ELECTIONS FOR SERVICE ON THE BOARD

It is an honor to be elected for service on the Chapter's Board of Directors. Only those members who are most dedicated and have demonstrated a commitment to the AIA qualify for service. The success of our Chapter depends upon having strong leadership, and looking toward the future with a working Board of Directors that is composed of members who understand the value and purpose of the organization, and are willing to commit their time and resources to strengthening the Chapter. We need leaders who move the Chapter forward while upholding and protecting the profession and leading the way for those who are just entering the profession.

Nominations are currently being taken for the positions of President-elect (President in 2020), and Treasurer.. To qualify for either of these positions nominees must have served at least one year on the Board.

Nominations are also being taken for four Directors positions. The following outlines some of the requirements for service as a Director on the Board.

Each Director must make a commitment to accept the requirements of service as a priority. As a member of the Board and a leader of the Chapter, Directors are required to attend all AIA Membership Meetings, special events and social functions and to support the Chapter's efforts in all programs. Directors are responsible for the financial security of the Chapter and generating the funding for programs and benefits for members. Directors must know and support the Chapter's mission, goals, programs, member benefits and concerns. . They are familiar with the policies and procedures of the Chapter and the Institute, and they act in accordance with these governances. Directors seek out opportunities to be ambassadors for the Chapter and actively work to encourage new members, engage civic and community leaders and positively represent their fellow members and the organization at all times.

If you ....or someone you know .... Is ready to make this commitment to Chapter leadership, then now is the time to contact the Nominating Committee and become a candidate for service on the Board of Directors. Contact Randy Lavigne, Executive Director via email at rlavigne@aianeveda.org or 702-895-0936.

Nevada & NSBAIDRD

The Nevada State Board of Architecture, Interior Design & Residential Design in partnership with the Nevada Chapter of the American Institute of Architects is offering an opportunity for Nevada architects, interior designers and residential designers to earn all of Nevada's 8 required health, safety and welfare (HSW) continuing education units (CEU's) in one day!

PLEASE NOTE: AIA Nevada and AIA Las Vegas are AIA CES Providers. The Provider Manual, updated in 2018, is the basic framework for evaluating new courses and lists specific criteria for Health, Safety and Welfare (HSW) LU credits. Since the enforcement of the new standards, the course being offered May 9th in Reno, titled "Professional Ethics: A Duty to Live Up To", does not meet AIA's definition for HSW credit but will qualify for LU credit. The Nevada State Board of Architects, Interior Designers and Residential Designers will grant HSW credit for the purpose of annual registration renewal for this course.

AIA WESTERN MOUNTAIN REGION DESIGN AWARDS CALL FOR ENTRIES, SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS, AND FORMS

*The 2019 WMR Conference and the WMR Design Awards

Entries from multi-office firms are limited to work designed in the office located in any one of the six states in the Western Mountain Region: Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming.

The intent of the design awards program is to honor the highest standards of design in response to user requirements, site, context, climate and environment. Each entry, regardless of size or classification, is judged individually on the basis of total design merit.

AWARDS TIMELINE

- May 24: Deadline for Entry Forms and Fees
- June 21: Design Submittals Due
- Week of July 8: Jury Meets

CATEGORIES

Distinguished Building Awards: Recognizes significant achievements in the planning, design and execution of recently built projects.

Unbuilt Design Awards: Recognizes achievements in architectural design for commissioned projects that may or may not be built. Student projects and non-building work such as industrial or graphic design may not be submitted. Projects must have been commissioned by a client and may include competition entries, urban design schemes, and similar work.

On Wednesday, April 10, AIA helped introduce the Invest in America Act—federal legislation that would create project opportunities for architecture firms by increasing state and local leaders' ability to attract much needed investment to improve buildings and infrastructure in their cities and towns.

Now it's time for us to work together to advance it through Congress. For this legislation to pass both chambers, AIA needs you to help with recruiting your U.S. House of Representatives delegation members. Visit <https://p2a.co/jLufacn> to send a short message asking them to co-sponsor the Invest in America Act, HR 2210.

The Invest in America Act would repeal a federal tax law known as FIRPTA or the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act. This archaic policy imposes a punitive capital gains tax on global investors that fund domestic real estate projects. By repealing it, the Invest in America Act would have numerous benefits for our profession, our businesses and the communities we serve including:

- Creating jobs for architects: 284,000 jobs could be generated, especially in the design, construction, manufacturing, and real estate industries.
- Spurring projects for firms: As much as $125 billion in new capital could be available to invest directly into building or retrofitting America's aging public and private building stock.
- Improving communities: Architects know first-hand that our cities and towns are in disrepair. The Invest in America Act would inject much needed capital into them. From airports to schools, hospitals, senior centers, affordable housing and our transportation systems, this bill would begin to help communities of all sizes and locations.

AIA expects to introduce a bipartisan Senate version of the bill in the future. For now, we must build support for it in the U.S. House of Representatives. Learn more and help advance AIA's effort to create jobs and projects for architects and improve America's cities and towns.

Please share this call to action on social media and encourage your colleagues to take action, too.

BY SALLY RIPAMONTI

Painting has always been an isle of tranquility in my hectic life as the mother of four boys. It was the place where problems (and there were many) could be solved using color. For me, that was almost magical. Though I've tried to develop a "genre," one never comes. I love to paint everything in the manner that strikes me, at the moment. It keeps life interesting.
